Legislative.

As our State Legislature is to assemble in about six weeks from the present time, the officemongers are busily engaged in electioneering for the Speakership, Clerkships, &c., &c. It is always an important matter in the organization of deliberative bodies, that the presiding officer chosen should be a man of ability, dignity, quickness of perception, and that he should be strictly just and impartial. That such a gentleman can be easily found among the distinguished Democrats elected to the House, we make no doubt. We could name such able and true men as William Hopkins, of Washington, Cyrus L. Pershing, of Cambria, Thadeus Banks, of Blair, John Scott, of Huntingdon, and others who would do honor to the Speaker's Chair.—But the question is how is any one of these gentlemen to be elected? The regular Democracy have not a clear majority of the members of the House. The Democrats elected on "Union" tickets must be counted with them to give us a majority. There are, we believe, ten, in all, of the latter. Now, as to our mind it appears natural that Democrats should act together, whether they were elected on regular tickets, or on Union tickets, we suggest to our party friends in the House that they combine with the Democrats elected on "Union" tickets, by giving them a fair proportion of the officers to be chosen. If this be done the Democracy can have control of the House and the party will be perfectly re-united and greatly strengthened. Let there be no squeamish hesitancy to recognize as Democrats men who were not elected on regular Democratic tickets, if they still claim to be Democrats and openly avow themselves such. We hope, therefore, that every Democratic member of the House, no matter how chosen, will be invited to attend the Democratic caucus, and that a fair union will be consummated between the Democrats elected on regular tickets and those who were successful as independent candidates or on "Union" tickets.

☞ Owing to sickness among our compositors, we are compelled to issue a half-sheet this week. As half-sheets seem to be the fashion, with the country press, just now, our readers will scarcely think hard of this short-coming on our part.

NEWS FROM THE FLEET.

CAPTURE OF THE PORT ROYAL FORTS.

A telegram received here on Wednesday last, states that the Naval Expedition which recently sailed under sealed orders, landed at Port Royal Entrance, near Beaufort, S. C., captured two forts and afterwards took possession of the town of Beaufort. Our troops found in the latter place but a single white man, who was so drunk that he could'nt have told Jeff. Davis from Abe Lincoln. It seems that our troops met with but slight resistance. A considerable number of cannon and other stores fell into the hands of the Union men. A dispatch from Jeff. Davis to the commander at Port Royal, stating the time of sailing and the destination of the expedition, was found among the papers captured. Somebody in high position is evidently playing the part of Benedict Arnold. Who can it be?

Rumored Battle in Tennessee.

By telegraph we have rumors that Gen. Nelson had attacked the rebels at Cumberland Gap, near the Northern boundary of Tennessee, and that he was successful in killing, wounding and taking a large number of prisoners. The particulars of this fight are meagre, and we refrain from giving them until we hear further.

The ground was covered with the shrieks of the wounded, trampled hoods of charging squadrons (Bad Gazette) thunder of the battle—CONFEDERACY" the Prussian C[illegible]DINATION AND TREASON.

Mr. Editor:

Since I wrote you last and published to the world that we had "seceded," we have been getting along "swimmingly," till of late, when we became cognizant that there are traitors in our ranks. We had been flattering ourselves that the greatest unanimity prevailed in our midst in regard to our cause, and that our confederacy was a "fixed fact," when the whole community—I mean the loyal portion of it, and even some of the traitors went off in hysterics, for "make believe"—was thrown into the utmost consternation and confusion, by the alarming intelligence that some of our females had refused to give their "aid and comfort" to our cause, and were forming a secret association to resist certain portions of our our rules and regulations. As I stated in my last official report, some of the ladies were in arms, but nobody had no idea that anybody would be hurt by it. We were all astonished at the turn they made. Considering that the ladies are the petted ones among us, all hands counted it mean that they should use their weapons against our glorious cause.

(Private.) Here I would remark—to the gentlemen only—that woman is a turbulent being; and like the waters of the troubled ocean, she is continually moving and doing something desperate. It was "Women & Snaix" that got our grand sire, Adam, into a fix, and drove the innocent old man from his homestead, where he might have lived in ease to a ripe old age. And the former part of the above "firm" is getting man into some predicament continually. It's a notorious fact, and at particular times, some of them will even admit it.

But to my subject. We soon learned that the disaffected ones were going to have a secret meeting in a dilapidated old kitchen,—a kitchen is a great place for women to talk—in the outskirts of our capital. A deserter from their ranks told us this. How to "steal a march" on them, was soon arranged. I was to go among them in the habiliments of woman. I was to "beard the lion in his den." (This is "sarcustical." Our women don't wear beards.) I donned a full rig, hoops and all, took the oath,—a horrid one, for when women swear, it's awful,—and when the time for meeting came, went there, and took a back seat. All kinds of faces were there; and, judging from the confusion, I imagined they were getting up a project to build another Babel.

After stationing pickets with broomsticks, around the house, the President,—who as usual in all political meetings had been appointed before,—a tall, heavy old maid who had the frost of between forty summers crowning her auburn locks, rose, and in a loud voice, spoke as follows: "Ladies: a thousand thanks is due you for conferring the honor of President of this here tremenjus meetin' onto me. I will send them around tomorrow in a hand-basket. No perlitical body that ever met, not even the old Roman Sennit, can equal this meetin' in intelleck. We have met here to defend our caws." Then throwing up her voice with her hands, and rolling her eyes to an alarming extent, she exclaimed, "I stand here on Wimmin's Rites." (This was figurative, for she was standing on an old board. Wimmin's Rites would'nt hold a female of her size; it would break down.) "You all know what has brought us here. The 'lords of creation' has been domineering over us too long. They have been imposin' on us, and they want to do it agin. They want us now to knit stockings for the soldiers out of pure patriotism, while they are stealing enough from the Government—out of pure patriotism too—to clothe a whole army. If the stockings were to be knit out of their patriotism, they would be thinner than those knit of gossamer threads. I want all of you to put your foot down on it!" (Here she stamped her double sole, No. 8, violently on the floor, and sank, exhausted, into an arm chair, prepared for the purpose; wiping her face with a large, red palmetto handkerchief, which she had displayed while making gestures in speaking.)

A silence of a few minutes ensued, during which smellingbottles and handkerchiefs were resorted to quite extensively; when up jumped one of the initiated, and in a voice that sounded like a boy whistling into the bung-hole of an empty cider barrel, addressed the chair thus: 'Mr. President. I'll have it moved that a committee be made to write resolutions, to show how we feel on the subject before us.' A committee was accordingly made by the President After which the mover again rose and harangued in this manner: "I made that motion out of pure patriotism. Patriotism is proverbial in our family. It has been handed down to us from generation to generation, and it's pure yet. My grandfather was a near relative to Benidict Arnold, and he was full of patriotism.—But the genuwine stuff is a leetle scarce nowa-days. You kin find plenty who are full of it, if they are well paid for it. My granddaddy showed his patriotism by walking barefooted, across the room, three times during the Revolutionrry war. He had no stockings. Such instances are rare now." The thoughts of her ancestor's suffering affected her so much that she sat down and had to resort to a restorative.

The next speaker was a robust specimen, who in a stentorian voice, gave vent to her feelings in this manner: "I think your talk is all 'bosh.' Notwithstanding the government 's bein' cheated and robbed by thousands of those who like a cankerous worm, air gnawing at the very vitals of the treasury, yet I would be willing to show my patriotism by knitting stockings, "free gratis," if I thought it was necessary. When the Revolutionary war was fought among the Pyramids and the Arabian sands of Central America, the American soldiers—my father one of them—wore sandals, which are no kin to the above luxury. The American Eagle don't wear stockings! Think on that, ye who are fighting for that glorious bird! When you come to the great Potomac—the water on which Nelson whipped the Hottentots, and Guy Fawkes blowed up the Parliament fleet by his Gunpowder Plot—stand on its bank, and in the language of the poet, "holler out:"

"Leander swum the Hellespont
And I kin swim this here," without stockings!" She was so much overcome that she fell back and wiped her eyes with a dry knot-hole, which she instinctively carried in her bosom. Tremendous applause followed. A deafening call was made for a new member, when she arose and said: "I aint got no intellect, I aint got nothing to say.' This seemed to satisfy them.

A number of others spoke in the same strain,—some of the speeches were strained very fine—after which the resolutions were reported as follows:

Whereas—"Some things can be done as well as others," therefore, Resolved, that no member of this Association shall be allowed to knit any stockings for the use of the soldiers, until the Government first kicks out those who are continually stealing its money:

Resolved, That the female portion of this community know their rights and will maintain them.

Resolved, That we will recognize no soldier unless he has waded knee deep, barefooted, in the blood of the Southern, confiscated oxen!

Resolved, That inasmuch as this appears to be a war of speculation with a good many, we will only marry the soldiers, or contractors, who come out of this war with the most money.

Resolved, That whoever shall divulge any of the proceedings of this Association, shall be doomed to be an old maid.

When this resolution was put, the President "grinned a ghastly smile," for she was in that "fix" already.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted after which the meeting adjourned. What effect this may have on our government I scarcely know; but am allowed to state that the President and Cabinet are holding a secret consultation over the matter. When woman gets started, there's no telling where she'll stop. I am afraid our Government will have to suspend the writ of Habeas Corpus, and Women's Rights, too. I'm thinking, however, that this exposure will smash up their organization, although I'll be doomed to be an old maid! If any thing turns up, I'll let you know.

Officially yours,
XENOPHON ZENTYHOFFEN,
Sec. Con.

SCHOOL ETHICS FOR PARENT AND CHILD.

No. 20.

Independent of the relations which men sustain to each other, there are certain requirements in regard to themselves which must be observed. All men have prerogatives and privileges which must be sustained by their own interference. To sustain these prerogatives and preserve these privileges inviolate, men owe themselves the fulfilment of certain duties, which must be observed. It is not only necessary that pupils should fulfil all the duties they owe to each others, but, in order that they may reach the grand end sought for, they must fulfil certain

DUTIES TO THEMSELVES.

They should inform themselves. This is the ultimate end aimed at by those who send their children to school and, in fact, it is the true object of all instruction. Improvement seems to be the universal watchword of the age. The slow, though progressive German spirit, does not seem to be fast enough, and philosophical teachers are constantly making experiments in their search to find out some method whereby a more rapid and more thorough improvement may be effected! The teacher's whole work in the schoolroom is for the sole object of the improvement of the pupils; but all that he may attempt to accomplish, if he labor years and years, will be of no avail, if the pupil do not attempt to improve himself. Were there no inherent force in the germ of the plant, no life principle, all the labor of the cultivator would be a mere waste of time; the seed would remain a seed forever, and, become nothing more; so with the mind of the child, if there be no exertions made by the life principle with which it is endowed, the teacher's labors are of no avail, for it will ever remain the same mind, uncultivated and unimproved. In order to become true men and women, it is evident they must labor to improve themselves. It is a duty they manifestly owe themselves, if they desire to become what Nature intended they should become. Nature never intended man to be a mere passive recipient, to receive everything and acquire nothing; but she has given him a mind and powers to think and act for himself, and through his own exertions to become educated and fitted for the duties of life. He must not be a mere drone in the hive, but active and ready to gather the sweets of knowledge for himself, and not subsist on the products of the honest toil of others.

KAPPA.

EXIT EDITOR.

We are sorry that we have to part, editorially, with the Educational Editor of the Inquirer. We have been so edified by his weakly dissertations, that like Oliver Twist, we "wanted more." But like all things mortal, his educational column has "faded away;" and, judging from the tone of his farewell address, his days editorial have been "few and full of trouble." His valedictory appeared last week. It is rich; decidedly so. After whining like a boy who has not received his quota of peanuts on a Christmas day, he hurls his invectives at the teachers, and the people of this county generally, with a carelessness that might hurt somebody. His presumptions on the ignorance that—he says—pervades the county, and his compliments to the people, will hardly induce them to have a more charitable opinion of him, or the cause which he pretends to advocate. As a traveling missionary, he should have made it his special duty to go among the people of this county and inform them what free schools are. It would have had a salutary effect, no doubt.

But we are gratified to learn, through him, that there is some intelligence among us, for he says, a "very few appreciate the full advantage and understand the practical operation of our system." Those few must be his patrons.

The editor again makes the supremely ridiculous assertion that our column was established "to injure personally." This puerile notion scarcely deserves a notice. If that was our aim, then we are at an end, for like Othello's, our "occupation's gone." But not so. We have endeavored, and shall still endeavor, to do our humble part in building up the great cause of education in this county; and the fact that our contemporary of the Inquirer has withdrawn from the field, shall only be an incentive to greater exertion in our work.

His complimentary allusion to us, last week, merits this notice. Long may he live to wear the laurels he has won(?) in the editorial sanctum! Sic transit gloria mundi! S. S.

LATEST WAR NEWS.

THE BATTLE AT BELMONT, MO.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.

The War Department has received an official telegram concerning the battle at Belmont, Missouri, which generally confirms the newspaper statement. It says that Captain Bielosky, of Gen. McClernand's staff, was killed, and among other particulars, we fought all the way into the enemie's, camp, immediately under the guns of Columbus, spiked two guns, and brought away two, together with 200 prisoners. The Federal loss is stated at 300, that of the enemy being much heavier. The Government has no authentic information that the rebels are weakening their own forces in the lower Potomac.

We have news from the Lower Potomac to the effect that the rebels have not retired southward and back from the river, but on the contrary, were seen building a telegraph line within a day or two, on the Virginia shore.

Col. John Cochrane, of the New York Chasseurs, intends to make a speech on Monday, to his regiment, on the issues of the day.

Adam Bein, of one of the Pennsylvania Reserve regiments, Wm. M. Smith, of the Fourth, and John Jones, of the Thirty-sixth Pennsylvania, died on Friday last.

NEWS FROM THE FLEET.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 10.

The steamer from Old Point has arrived.—The passengers report that a flag of truce had arrived from Norfolk, and brought no news from the expedition, but that the wheelsman of the rebel steamer stated to one of the hands of the Federal steamer, that Beaufort had been taken by she United States troops, and that our flag was waving over the Court House.

Passengers by the boat also report that the Richmond Enquirer, of Friday, contains a dispatch from Charleston, dated Wednesday, simply stating that the Federal troops had landed at two points, and were marching inland The dispatch did not say what points.

The officers of the rebel flag of truce refused to give any information whatever.

LATER ACCOUNTS.

CAIRO, Nov. 9—It is impossible yet to obtain anything like an accurate report of the killed, wounded and missing in the engagement at Belmont on the 7th. It is estimated that 25 of the Twenty-second Illinois regiment are missing, and it is thought 350 are missing of the Seventh Iowa. Col. Lamans is wounded; not dangerous; Lt. Col. Wendell killed; Major missing; Adjutant missing, and reported killed. In Logan's regiment, 35 killed and 47 wounded. All but forty-four of Col. Fouke's regiment answered to the roll call yesterday afternoon. Loss in Buford's regiment not ascertained, but is supposed not heavy. In Taylor's artillery, only three slightly wounded. One hundred and thirty-four prisoners were taken.

THE LATEST FROM MISSOURI—ONE OF GEN. FREMONT'S OFFICERS ARRESTED WHILST ABSCONDING WITH GOVERNMENT FUNDS—THE ENGAGEMENT AT BELMONT.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Advices from St. Louis state that Major Finney, who left Springfield with Gen. Fremont, brought away the chest containing about $300,000, having failed to pay the troops! The money has been secured, and the major arrested and returned to Springfield under a strong guard.

THE MARYLAND ELECTION.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 9.

Returns have been received from three-fourths of the State. The Legislature stands, as far as heard from, about sixty-five Union and not one Secessionist. For the Senate ten Union men have been elected, and not a single Secessionist. Seven Secession Senators hold over, but they are principally boarding in Fort Warren. The Union cause has already secured, with the three Union Senators holding over, a clear working majority in that branch. The majority for A. W. Bradford, the Union candidate for Governor, will not be less than 32,000, and the vote in all the counties is the largest ever cast in the state. Hurrah for our Union loving State.

PARTINGTONIAN.—'What are you agoing to do, you bad woman's boy!' said Mrs. Partington, as Ike passed through the kitchen into the garden.

'Down with the seceshers!' he shouted, and she looked out just in season to see the top of a beautiful plant fall before the artillery sword of Paul that the youngster held in his hand.

'You'd bett: go to Molasses Junction, if you waut to do that,' she said, restraining his hand as it lifted against her fuchia, ready to decapitate the plant that she had watched with almost a mother's care three winters. 'Dear me!' she murmured half to her self, 'what a terriable thing war is when even the children show such signs of consanguinity. I can't bear to think of it. Isaac, dear, go down and buy me an extradition of the paper.' Ike departed with half a dime, and from the fact that no change came back, Mrs. Partington supposed the price was raised.

CAPT. D. W. MULLLINS' COMPANY,

WILL LEAVE BEDFORD, ON TUESDAY next, (the 19th) for CAMP CURTIN. Patriotic young men that have any notion of going in the defence of their country, had better come in and join this comany as it will be the last company leaving Bedford county. Persons going in this Company, will find Capt. Mullin a firstrate man, and will do anything for the comfort of his men.

Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, and all Skin Diseases.

OAKLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

Gents: I feel it my duty to acquaint you with the wonderful cures your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Some years ago I had a bad case of erysipelatous infection, I have suffered from it at times ever since. Sometimes it burst out on my face, sometimes on my head and arms; sometimes it would attack me in the stomach. Two years ago last winter it broke out and entirely covered my scalp and face, and was very painful. I was induced to try your Sarsaparilla, and several bottles entirely cured me. I have not been troubled with it since. I have recommended it frequently to my friends and neighbors, and in every instance where they have given it a fair trial, it has done them much good. In fact, I believe it to be the best blood purifier we have in market, and shall continue to use it in my family as occasion requires. Yours, with respect,

JOHN M. ROBISON.

The above stock is raised in Bedford County soil and climate and can be had fresh from the ground.

PUBLIC SALE

OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

By virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of Bedford County, the undersigned will offer the whole of the real estate of Daniel Means, deceased, for sale, on the premises, in Black Valley, Monroe Tp.,

On Friday, the 1st Day of November, next. The real estate consists of two tracts, viz: The Mansion tract, containing about TWO HUNDRED ACRES, and having thereon erected a

SAW MILL AND BARN,

(the dwelling house having been lately burnt.) This tract contains an excellent WATER POWER—the head and tail races are already dug.

There is no better locality for a Mill or Tan Yard. Both are in demand and much needed in the neighborhood. An abundance of bark is close by and cheap.

This property is not more than 6 or 7 miles from the present terminus of Broad Top Rail Road now under contract and soon to be completed. The road is a solid ridge road, leading from the rail road to the premises. The land is good for farming purposes. But for either of the purposes suggested—a mill or tan yard—there is a rare opportunity presented for a profitable investment.

The other tract is a mountain tract, adjoining the above—is well timbered and in connection with the mansion tract is valuable. It contains about 250 acres and has a DWELLING HOUSE and SHOP thereon erected—about 40 acres cleared. About one half of the mansion tract is also cleared and the balance well timbered.

TERMS:—One third in hand at confirmation of sale, and balance in two equal annual payments with interest.

DR. J. HOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS!

Prepared from Roots found in the Mountains of California, were discovered. A very interestin account of his adventures there, you will find in our Almanac and Pamphlet.

It is an established fact, that all diseases arise from

IMPURE BLOOD!

The blood is the life! and when any foreign or unhealthy matter gets mixed with it, it is at once distributed to every organ of the body. Every nerve feels the poison, and all the vital organs quickly complain. The stomach will not digest the food perfectly. The liver ceases to secrete a sufficiency of bile. The action of the heart is weakened, and so the circulation is feeble. The lungs become clogged with the poisonous matter; hence, a cough—and all from a slight impurity at the fountain-head of life—the Blood! As if you had thrown some earth, for instance, in a pure spring, from which ran a tiny rivulet, in a few minutes the whole course of the stream becomes disturbed and discolored. As quickly does impure blood fly to every part, and leave its sting behind. All the passages become obstructed, and unless the obstruction is removed, the lamp of life soon dies out.

These pills not only purify the blood, but regenerate all the secretions of the body; they are, therefore, unrivalled as a

CURE FOR BILIOUS DISEASES,

Liver Complaint, Sick Headache, &c. This Anti-Bilious Medicine expels from the blood the hidden seeds of disease, and renders all the fluids and secretions pure and fluent, clearing and resuscitating the vital organs.

Pleasant indeed, is it to us, that we are able to place within your reach, a medicine like the "MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS" that will pass directly to the afflicted parts, through the blood and fluids of the body, and cause the sufferer to brighten with the flush of beauty and health.

BEST SEWING MACHINES IN THE WORLD

For either Family or Manufacturing Purposes.

And all we ask is a fair trial. Read the following:

IMPORTANT FACTS.

FACT No. 1.—This Company being duly licensed, their Machines are protected against infringements or litigation.

FACT No. 2.—These Machines make the lock-stitch—alike on both sides—and use a little less than half as much thread and silk as the chain or loop-stitch machines.

FACT No. 3.—These Machines are better adapted than any other sewing-machines in market to the frequent changes and almost endless variety of sewing required in a family. They will sew from one to twenty thicknesses of Marseilles without stopping, and make every stitch perfect. They will even sew from the finest gauze to the heaviest cloth, and even stout, hard leather, without changing the feed, needle, or tension, or making any adjustment of machine whatever.—Is not such a machine best adapted to family use? and it best adapted to family use, why not for every variety of light sewing manufacture? For work too heavy for our Family Machine, we recommend our larger sizes.

FACT No. 4.—These Machines make the most elastic seam of any sewing-machine in use—a fact of very great importance in sewing elastic goods, or goods of any kind, or a bias.

FACT No. 5.—No Machine is more durable or more simple in its construction, or more easily understood. The reputation of these Machines wherever used will fully demonstrate each of the above facts.

FACT No. 6.—These Machines took the Highest Premium at the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia.

FACT No. 7—These Machines took the Highest Premium at the New Jersey State Fair.

FACT No 8.—These Machines took the Highest Medal at the American Institute, in the City of New York, together with the Highest Premium for fine Sewing-Machine Work.

FACT No. 9.—These Machines took both the Highest Premiums at the Mechanics' Fair, Utica,

FACT No. 10.—These Machines can do the same thing generally, whenever properly exhibited in competition with other first-class Sewing Machines. But we have space for only one fact more—it is the most important Fact of all

FACT No. 11.—We warrant every Machine we sell to give better satisfaction than any othe Sewing-Machine in market, or money refunded.
